Product Description

GYTA33 12 24 36 core direct burial armored submarine loose optic cable

The GYTA33 marine fiber optic cable, accommodating 2 to 72 fibers, is equipped with a steel central support and is internally filled with a gel substance. The fiber is housed in a loosely woven tube, potentially accompanied by a polypropylene filler if needed, and is spiraled around a gel that prevents water infiltration. The cable is then shielded with an aluminum tape coated with copolymer, enclosed within a polyethylene inner layer, fortified by steel wire armor, and topped with a polyethylene outer layer. It utilizes G652D single-mode fibers, with detailed specs customizable to your requests.

Key Features

- Premium quality optical fiber ensures exceptional transmission efficiency
- Meticulous management of fiber surplus length guarantees robust mechanical performance and temperature resilience
- Loose tubes filled with proprietary gel provide perfect protection for optical fibers

Complete water-blocking capability ensures reliable defense against moisture and water

Central strength member features anti-corrosive, high-modulus phosphated steel wire for optimal tensile strength

Longitudinal armor with aluminum tape and steel wire braid provides high resistance to crushing, tensile strength, and bullet resistance

Ideal for rigorous direct burial or underwater deployment
